FOOTBALL WRESTLING

Fred Boeger was one of the most distinguished and celebrated athletes ever to graduate from College Park High School. In football, Fred was a 1st Team All Conference DVAL at Tackle. He earned All-East Bay and All Northern California status and represented Contra Costa County in the East-West All Star game. In wrestling, Fred was a 4 time League Champion, 3 time Section Champion and took 2nd twice at the State meet. As a National Freestyle and Greco-Roman Wrestler, he was a 3 time AAU Freestyle Champion. Fred earned a full scholarship to Colorado State University where he continued to excel at both sports. Fred and his family are legends with their pony ranches throughout California and Texas and they still operate at county and state fairs throughout the west. Fred currently resides on a ranch just south of San Diego, where he is a published author and staunch advocate for children's education.
