

JERRY COOK

FOOTBALL BASEBALL

1964

Jerry Cook was a National High School All- American Tackle as selected by Parade Magazine and Prep Football Coach and Athlete for the 1963 football season. Jerry earned 1st Team All-DVAL honors for the 1963 season. He received a full ride scholarship to Brigham Young University and played 4 years under legendary coach Lavelle Edwards. Jerry is a member of the ALL-Decade Team of the 60's and played 3 years of professional football for the Spokane Shockers of the Continental Football League. He later coached football and wrestling at College Park High School before moving on to coach at St. Mary's College and Skyline High School. Jerry is currently a pastor of his own congregation in Stockton and a football coach at Weston Ranch High School. He lives in Stockton with his wife Rena and next door to their sons David and Tony and their families.